SMBHA SHOW RULES

1. To show in IBHA approved classes, submit a copy of the IBHA papers and cards with your show entries. Out of state horses will have to show valid current health papers and all horses show negative Coggins papers.
2. All shows will start on time unless adverse conditions prevail.
3. First five classes will close ten minutes prior to show time.
4. Classes may be entered up to two classes in advance of the class being entered.
5. No classes will be canceled unless there are no entries in the class.
6. All horses that are not entered in a particular class that in the show ring will be excused.
7. Please notify the ring steward of any tack change(s).
8. Dun factor classes will be held outside if possible. Judges shall decide if weather is prohibitive.
9. Western attire is required in all western classes, including western hat. Speed horse exhibitors may wear a cowboy hat or helmet, providing the hat/helmet remain on the exhibitor's person during the entire event or a 5 second penalty will be assessed. English classes require English attire, including helmet. Jackets may be optional at the judges' discretion due to weather.
10. Language: Foul or abusive language will not be permitted. Drinking: Drunk or disorderly conduct will not be permitted. Unsportsmanlike conduct will result in being barred from the show grounds.
11. Any performance class may be required to drop their bits at the discretion of rules person, show management and/or judge(s).
12. In order to run a tab at our horse shows a signed check must be left in the horse show office with the first entry. Cash entries pay as they enter each class.
13. All SMBHA show rules will coincide with the IBHA show rules. See IBHA Handbook and SMBHA Show Rules for further information.
14. See Nomination Form for SMBHA year end point qualifications.
