

CODY RIDERS FOR THERAPY

CASUAL AND FUN!! If you love to trail ride and meet new people then, an ACTHA CTC is just the opportunity for you! Join us September 18-19th.

Location is Brushy Creek Lodge in Black, MO. Please check out their page on Facebook for details regarding camping rates and directions. There are plenty of cabins, teepees and campground spaces available. There is also a restaurant on site for breakfast if wanted. September 18th we will have a meet and greet then ride and just relax and enjoy the scenery of the beautiful Ozarks, Brushy Creek, and Mark Twain National Forest.

There will be a campfire and a free chili dinner available Friday after our ride. Expect to ride about three hours on Friday, then we can rest and relax and get to know each other.

Saturday will be the actual competition. Check in between 8am-9am, expect to ride out by 10am. Lunch will be served afterward for a small fee, then the awards will follow.

There will be a jackpot for those who enter, ribbons for all division for 1-6 place as well as baskets with goodies for best dressed competitor and best groomed horse.

For more information, visit www.actha.us ride 7547, or contact ride host Lynda Bonebrake, either by email, horselover_too@hotmail.com or phone 573-999-9136, email is the preferred method of contact.

Sign up, and expect to see great trails, meet new friends and have a great time!
